DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 2, 11 (and therefore 12) and 18 (and therefore 19) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2 recites "for at least one of" and then goes on to list, presumably, two alternate choices (one of, both of which could be chosen). Given that applicant probably meant, instead of "in the application and the application", "in the application and or the application" the claim as it currently is recited is unclear. Similar problem exists for claims 11 and 18.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
- 2. Claims 1, 7-10, 14, 16, and as far as understood, claims 2, 11, 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(a) as being fully anticipated by Reents (U.S. Patent 6,067,627). Reents shows, (in, e.g., figures 1-4 and the corresponding disclosure) a power efficient integrated circuit comprising a phase locked loop operably coupled to receive a reference clock and produce therefrom a system clock based on a system clock control, an on-chip power supply control module, a memory operably coupled to store at least one application and a computational engine operably coupled to produce the system clock control signal and the power supply control signal based on a processing transfer characteristic of the computational engine.

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 3. Claims 1, 7-10, 14, 16, and as far as understood, claims 2, 11, 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being fully anticipated by Jackson (U.S. Patent 5,825,674). Jackson shows, (in, e.g., figure 3 and 6 and the corresponding disclosure) a power efficient integrated circuit comprising a phase locked loop operably coupled to receive a reference clock and produce therefrom a system clock based on a system clock control, an on-chip power supply control module, a memory operably coupled to store at least one application and a computational engine operably coupled to produce the system clock control signal and the power supply control signal based on a processing transfer characteristic of the computational engine.

Art Unit: 2838

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-6, 13, 15, 17, and 20-23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

- 5. Claims 12 and 19 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 112 and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
- 6. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's response must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 C.F.R. § 1.111(b) and section 707.07(a) of the M.P.E.P.
